

WTF News

July, 2004

Thanks to those who attended the WTF meetings and seminars in Glenwood Springs, Colorado in March. Everyone had a wonderful time. Mr. David Malehorn tested and was awarded the rank of Third Degree Black Belt. Mr. Ken Newton also tested, and was awarded the rank of Second Degree Black Belt. Congratulations to both! A great deal of commitment and sacrifice is required to advance in the Western Tang Soo Do Federation, and we're always excited to see individuals display that level of commitment. It shows during the tests.

Mr. Howard Jackson conducted our seminars in Colorado and did an outstanding job. The feedback we've received indicates that everyone loved Mr. Jackson's seminars and would love to see him again. He spent the afternoon teaching fighting techniques and reinforcing the practical application of many of the techniques already in our repertoires. He is a good friend of our organization, and we hope to see him again soon.

What's happening with the members of the Western Tang Soo Do Federation? We've heard some news, so we're passing it on to you. Please be sure to call (702-326-3699) or email Mr. Clark at clark@jumpkicks.com by October 15, 2004, and let us know what's going on in your life. Keeping in touch helps us maintain the camaraderie that makes us such a strong organization. If you don't have email, ask Mr. Clark for a jumpkicks.com email address. Remember that the newsletter and other information can be found online at www.jumpkicks.com. Take the time to take pictures of your favorite one-step and send them in for the Move-of-the-Month section of Jumpkicks. You could be famous.

Mr. Jimmy Alger is doing well, living in Henderson and trying to stay out of trouble. A few months ago he started his own business as a professional DJ. Using only word of mouth advertising, his business has grown nicely. He uses the name "DJ Alias" and has all his own equipment to take to house parties, receptions, and other jobs.

Mrs. Dottie Douglas was recently giving a special award for serving as Girls' Camp Director in her church group for twenty years. She has enjoyed spending time helping young women to grow, and received a standing ovation from the 200 people in attendance.

Mr. Howard Jackson leads WTF members through a series of fighting drills.

Mr. Douglas will be inducted into the Master's Hall of Fame on August 7, 2004. The ceremony will be held at the Radisson Hotel in Newport Beach at a formal black tie dinner and awards ceremony. You can find more information at www.mastershalloffame.com. This is a great honor for the leader of our organization, so be sure to congratulate Mr. D when you see him.

Ms. Dawn Eubanks is very mysterious and cryptic in relating recent events in her life. There were mentions of Rio, Paris, and Madrid, but details were not forthcoming. We do know that she anticipates using her martial arts skills each morning when she goes to work for her 4:00 a.m. shift. Miss Eubanks also confirmed that her oldest son, Travis, was married recently.

Ms. Tena Houser has taken a new position at Lenz Talent Agency. She is now expanding her horizons as bookkeeper on top of her duties as owner. Her new business "Destination Vegas" has used several WTF members recently. She has also placed several actors in a new movie, Miss Congeniality 2. Ms. Houser's children are very active. One daughter is a romance novelist who is a finalist in the Golden Heart competition. Another daughter left for the Navy on July 6.

Ms. Eden Hughes has been promoted to General Manager at Jamba Juice in Las Vegas. She has worked there for several years and received the promotion after returning from her mission in Alabama.

Mr. Newton finishes a one-step with Mr. Maleborn during their test.

Mr. Doug Reynolds is having a great time spending his summer as a camp counselor in Alaska. While he enjoys communing with nature, there are some drawbacks, including mosquitoes large enough to register on commercial radar screens, singing songs about alligators with no teeth, and being surrounded by fashions from the 80's. Hopefully, his training will help him endure and overcome.

Pam Whittington has been straightening her yard. Mr. Mable, Milada and Jack Lee, and four other friends converged on her house on a recent Saturday to help her with outdoor chores. They worked hard all day, mending fences, cutting down dead trees for firewood, mowing, cleaning horse pens, and sorting through all the old tools. She even managed to back the hay trailer and 4-horse trailer down the long driveway where they are kept. She is preparing to test for her 4th Degree Green belt following our Utah Seminar. She hopes to ride her horses, and pack in gear to camp out in the mountains with Mr. Kluge this summer as well.
